FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Charlottesville-Albemarle SPCA Announces New Executive Director

Suzanne Owen, Chair of the Charlottesville-Albemarle SPCA (CASPCA) Board of Directors announced today that Angie Gunter has been appointed Executive Director. Angie will begin her new position on August 1, 2017.

Angie has been a passionate member of the CASPCA team for more than four years serving as a volunteer, Board member, and then Development Director. Under her leadership, the CASPCA has increased community-wide support and forged new partnerships for the greater good of all of the animals in our community. Prior to joining the CASPCA, Angie served in corporate leadership positions for over 14 years. She has been an active member of the Charlottesville community since 2005 and currently has four dogs and two rabbits from the CASPCA.

In her role as Executive Director of the Charlottesville-Albemarle SPCA, Angie will oversee the day-to-day operations of the organization including animal care, animal intake, adoptions, education, training and counseling programs for pet owners, donor relations, and management of pound services for the City of Charlottesville and Albemarle County.
