COMPASSIONATE CARE CLINIC SUNDAY, AUGUST 27TH, 12PM-4PM

At the Charlottesville-Albemarle SPCA, we are passionate about making high-quality pet health care accessible and affordable to as many members of our community as possible. This Sunday, August 27th, we are holding our first of three Compassionate Care Clinics to be offered in 2017, from 12PM-4PM, here at 3355 Berkmar Drive. This service is available to those who qualify for public assistance. Proof of public assistance must be shown to participate in the clinic; examples of proof include, but are not limited to: EBT card, Proof of Disability, Medicaid, SNAP, Unemployment and WIC. Pet parents are required to pay a $15 fee for the Basic Wellness Exam, which includes a free rabies vaccination.

Other services offered include:

Microchip: $10

Nail trim: $10

Ear Mite treatment: $25

Services for Dogs:

Heartworm testing: $10

DAPP Vaccine: $5

Kennel Cough Vaccine: $5

Flea/Tick preventative application: $12

Services for Cats:

FVRCP Vaccine: $5

FELV/FIV testing: $15

Revolution Flea Preventative Application: $13

Strongid dewormer: $5

Pet owners do not need to schedule an appointment. All dogs must be on leash and cats must arrive in carriers.

The next Compassionate Care Clinic will be held on Sunday, November 12th, from 12-4PM. If you have any questions or would like more information regarding the clinic, please email clinic@caspca.org or call 434-973-5959 ext. 206.

About the Charlottesville-Albemarle SPCA: The Charlottesville-Albemarle SPCA is proud to have maintained the City of Charlottesville and Albemarle County as a No Kill community, providing life-saving care to thousands of animals in the region. The mission of the CASPCA is to advance the compassionate treatment of animals by providing sheltering, medical care and behavioral services for dogs and cats; promoting permanent, caring homes; and furthering education and outreach to place healthy animals in caring homes.
